Abstract Deutsch

Die vorliegende Arbeit entwickelt ein Konzept für eine neue Gemeindeverwaltung im Kern des Berner Dorfes Roggwil und behandelt dabei die Frage, ob sich ein neues öffentliches Gebäude besser in Bestehendes eingliedert, wenn es sich an der Architektur der Umgebung orientiert.

Abstract Englisch

This project develops a concept for a new municipal administration in the centre of the Bernese village of Roggwil, and asks whether a new public building integrates better if it's inspired by the architecture of its surroundings.
